

HOW ANNUAL DOLLARS ARE SPENT

Each year, Georgia Law relies on annual contributions from its alumni and friends to provide essential operating dollars. More than $700,000 must be contributed to the Law School Fund for the upcoming academic year. For the law school to raise these funds, we need your help.

71% of Law School Fund contributions directly benefit law students, particularly in the area of scholarship assistance.

LAW SCHOOL FUND BUDGET FY 2008-2009

Scholarships 65%

Development 10%
 Alumni Activities 7%
 Student Support 7%
 Dean's Office 5%
 Faculty Support 4%
 Advocacy Programs 2%

All expenditures are approved through an itemized budget request presented to the Law School Association Council and voted on by the greater Georgia Law alumni body during its annual meeting. Law School Fund contributions received this fiscal year are spent next fiscal year. Our fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30.

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE FUNDED SOLELY BY PRIVATE DONATIONS

Your annual support is critical if the law school is to provide needed scholarship dollars to rising second- and third-year law students and to be able to offer incoming law students financial assistance. Without your support, we risk losing talented students and applicants to institutions that can better meet their financial needs.

"The law school has a proud history of outstanding graduates. Our goal in admissions is to continue this tradition by attracting the best students to Georgia Law. Competition among top law schools for these students is fierce. The law school's future success in the market for the most accomplished law school applicants depends on your annual support. Private donations alone enable the law school to offer scholarships to the most deserving law students - the future graduates who will build on your legacy and become the next generation of leaders."

A MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

In today's world, the most qualified prospective law students are recruited by a number of top-rated schools. It is imperative that Georgia Law continue to distinguish itself in this increasingly competitive environment. Reputation alone will not suffice. For our law school to maintain as well as to improve its stature, alumni financial support is essential.

Annual donors to the Law School Fund provide needed dollars to Georgia Law so that the school is able to offer students competitive scholarships and superior programs. Simply put, consistent and increased annual gifts to the Law School Fund enable Georgia Law to compete at a higher level — a level that ensures our leadership role in legal education.

Your annual gift can and does make a difference in the future of Georgia Law.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Hanner White
