

H.M. Tory Society

Like you, Henry Marshall Tory, Carleton's founder and first president, believed that individuals can make a difference in higher education. Over the years, his passion has encouraged many to invest in Carleton University and its students.

Today, the prestigious H.M. Tory Society recognizes the generosity of nearly 600 annual donors whose gifts make an exceptional difference at Carleton.

You too can join the H.M. Tory Society! Contributions of $500 or more in a calendar year guarantee membership. Alumni who donate $250 or more (in a calendar year) within five years of graduation are also welcomed as members.

Members receive regular update letters informing them of the activities, achievements and challenges facing the university. You'll also receive invitations to exclusive Carleton events.

To join the Tory Society today simply make a gift online or contact us at (613) 520-3636 or 1-800-461-8972.

Why I support Carleton at the Tory Society level

"Studying at Carleton was a magical time in my life. Now I support the university annually at the Tory Society level because I want to ensure that future generations of Carleton students have the same challenging and rich experience that I had. The extra investment I make directly translates to enhanced services and resources for students."

~Don Climo, Senator's Circle of the H.M. Tory Society

Henry Marshall Tory

"I learned very early the life lesson that it is people, not buildings, that make up an institution. And if we put our hearts to it we can do something worthwhile."
